

Growe Industries Brings Solus Family of Brands to North America

May 7, 2013, LAS VEGAS, Nevada (NHS Booth #10771, North Hall) - Growe Industries is pleased to announce a new distribution partnership with Solus Garden & Leisure, the UK's leading supplier of garden, leisure and home products. Under the terms of this alliance, Growe is now the North American distributor for the Solus family of brands.

"We are thrilled by this partnership with Solus Garden & Leisure," said Shannon Crowe, Director of Growe Industries. "Solus offers an extensive range of high quality products, and we are excited to make them available to the North American market."

One of the brands now available to US customers is Joseph Bentley Traditional Garden Tools, a comprehensive range of high quality hand tools which appeal to the most discerning and demanding of gardeners. Inspired by the quality look and feel of the traditional garden tools offered by Bentley's over 100 years ago, the range of Stainless Steel Hand Tools feature modern design and function while retaining a traditional feel.

Among the other Solus product lines offered by Growe are Yeoman garden tools, Adorn home and garden decor products, Woodland Wilf collectable garden gnome characters, and the award-winning Botanico Grow-Your-Own and Eco products.
